➔ HOPE PB&J Challenge | Reto de Crema de Cacahuete y Mermelada

Take the PB & J Challenge, now ongoing through Palm Sunday, and help HOPE stock their pantry by donating peanut butter and jelly! Join our "Favorite Flavor Challenge" to see if Christ the King is a smooth or chunky peanut butter parish—and which jelly wins: grape, strawberry, peach, or orange marmalade. So far, we've collected 205 jars of peanut butter, with creamy leading at 140, and 135 jars of jelly, with grape in the lead at 72. Keep the donations coming!

¡Acepta el Desafío de Crema de Cacahuete y Mermelada, ahora en curso hasta el Domingo de Ramos, y ayuda a HOPE a abastecer su despensa! Participa en nuestro "Desafío de Sabor Favorito" para ver si Cristo Rey es una parroquia cacahuete cremosa o con trozos, y qué mermelada gana: uva, fresa, durazno o naranja. Hasta ahora, hemos recolectado 205 frascos de crema de cacahuete, con la cremosa ganando con 140, y 135 frascos de mermelada, con la de uva en frente con 72. ¡Sigán llegando las donaciones!

➔ CTK1551 - Building Unidos

The CTK 1551 – Building Unidos Campaign continues to grow thanks to your generosity! As of February 15, 2026, we have $1,897,091 pledged—nearly 76% of our $2.5 million goal—and $1,247,061 collected. We are grateful to the 301 families who have already participated in this important effort. Every gift brings us closer to building a bright future for Christ the King. Thank you for your continued support and prayers!

La campaña CTK 1551 – Construyendo Unidos sigue creciendo gracias a su generosidad. Al 15 de febrero de 2026, habíamos prometido $1,897,091 (casi el 76% de nuestra meta de $2.5 millones) y recaudado $1,247,061. Agradecemos a las 301 familias que ya han participado en esta importante iniciativa. Cada donación nos acerca a construir un futuro brillante para Cristo Rey. ¡Gracias por su continuo apoyo y oraciones!

Rooted in the Eucharist, Growing in Mission

Last week, our Scripture readings centered on the image of water. This Sunday, the focus shifts to light and sight. Both images speak to something essential in our lives. They bring refreshment, clarity, and joy. Yet the Word of God invites us to go deeper. In the Gospel (John 9:1-41), we hear the powerful "I AM" statements of Jesus: "I am the living water" and "I am the light of the world." The message is clear: God makes all things new in and through Jesus Christ.

In the First Reading (1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a), Samuel anoints David, the overlooked shepherd boy. While others see only outward appearances, God sees the heart. In the Gospel, Jesus heals the man born blind, giving him not only physical sight but the gift of faith. Though questioned and rejected, David remains steadfast in the truth and comes to profess his belief in Christ.

St. Paul (Ephesians 5:8-14) reminds us that through faith and Baptism we have been brought from darkness into light. We are no longer children of darkness, but are called to live as children of the light, reflecting Christ in our daily lives.

This message speaks directly to our parish mission: "Forming a diverse community, rooted in the Eucharist, in order to serve as Christ to the world." The Eucharist is our well, where we draw the living water of Christ's Body and Blood. From that well, we are strengthened, enlightened, and sent forth to serve.

In this spirit, our new parish office is not simply a building project. It is an investment in our mission. It will be the heart of our parish ministry, a place where our priests, staff, and volunteers coordinate faith formation, sacramental preparation, outreach to the poor, youth ministry, and many other works that bring Christ's light to others. Like a wellspring for our community, it will help sustain the life and mission of our parish for generations to come.

We are in the process of selecting a contractor for our project and will be able to provide you with an update of our selection in the coming weeks. With God's grace, construction may begin by the end of this year or early 2027.

I humbly ask for your continued prayers and generous support. Please consider making your pledge through the Catholic Community Foundation, sponsoring a room or office, or offering a small weekly sacrifice consistently. For example, the cost of a cup or two of coffee, or perhaps one hour's pay. Every gift helps build not only a structure, but a stronger and more vibrant parish community.

As we continue our Lenten journey, may Christ renew our hearts, open our eyes, and help us to always walk in His light. Together, we can ensure that our parish remains a living source of faith, hope, and love for generations to come.

May God continue to bless you and your family.
Fr. Rolyn Francisco

La semana pasada, nuestras lecturas bíblicas se centraron en la imagen del agua. Este domingo, el enfoque se centra en la luz y la visión. Ambas imágenes hablan de algo esencial en nuestras vidas: nos refrescan, nos dan claridad y nos alegran. Sin embargo, la Palabra de Dios nos invita a profundizar. En el Evangelio (Juan 9:1-41), escuchamos las poderosas declaraciones de Jesús: «Yo soy el agua viva» y «Yo soy la luz del mundo». El mensaje es claro: Dios hace nuevas todas las cosas en y por medio de Jesucristo.

En la primera lectura (1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a), Samuel unge a David, el pastorcillo olvidado. Mientras otros solo ven las apariencias, Dios ve el corazón. En el Evangelio, Jesús sana al hombre ciego de nacimiento, dándole no solo la vista física, sino también el don de la fe. A pesar de ser cuestionado y rechazado, David se mantiene firme en la verdad y llega a profesar su fe en Cristo.

San Pablo (Efesios 5:8-14) nos recuerda que mediante la fe y el Bautismo hemos sido llevados de las tinieblas a la luz. Ya no somos hijos de las tinieblas, sino que estamos llamados a vivir como hijos de la luz, reflejando a Cristo en nuestra vida diaria.

Este mensaje se dirige directamente a nuestra misión parroquial: «Formar una comunidad diversa, arraigada en la Eucaristía, para servir como Cristo al mundo». La Eucaristía es nuestra fuente, de donde extraemos el agua viva del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. De esa fuente, somos fortalecidos, iluminados y enviados a servir.

En este espíritu, nuestra nueva oficina parroquial no es simplemente un proyecto de construcción. Es una inversión en nuestra misión. Será el corazón de nuestro ministerio parroquial, un lugar donde nuestros sacerdotes, personal y voluntarios coordinan la formación en la fe, la preparación sacramental, la ayuda a los pobres, la pastoral juvenil y muchas otras obras que llevan la luz de Cristo a los demás. Como un manantial para nuestra comunidad, ayudará a sostener la vida y la misión de nuestra parroquia para las generaciones venideras.

Estamos en proceso de seleccionar un contratista para nuestro proyecto y les informaremos sobre nuestra selección en las próximas semanas. Con la gracia de Dios, la construcción podría comenzar a finales de este año o principios de 2027.

Les pido humildemente sus oraciones y su generoso apoyo. Por favor, consideren hacer su donación a través de la Fundación Comunitaria Católica, patrocinando una sala u oficina, u ofreciendo un pequeño sacrificio semanal de forma regular. Por ejemplo, el costo de una o dos tazas de café, o quizás una hora de salario. Cada donación ayuda a construir no solo una estructura, sino una comunidad parroquial más fuerte y vibrante.

Al continuar nuestra Cuaresma, que Cristo renueve nuestros corazones, abra nuestros ojos y nos ayude a caminar siempre en su luz. Juntos, podemos asegurar que nuestra parroquia siga siendo una fuente viva de fe, esperanza y amor para las generaciones venideras.

Que Dios continúe bendiciéndoles a ustedes y a su familia.

Padre Rolyn Francisco

3 Are you experiencing grief for whatever reason?

If yes, come to an informational gathering on:
Saturday, March 21st at 2:00pm in St. Francis

Grief is a natural response to loss. It is the sorrow of a broken heart, not a broken mind. For the past 19 years, Norine Larson has walked alongside those who are grieving, offering compassionate guidance and support. This program provides a safe and welcoming space to share, listen, and reflect with others who understand the pain of losing a loved one. Because each person's journey through grief is unique, participants will gain insight into the grieving process and learn helpful ways to cope, heal, and move forward with hope.
