History of Christ the King Parish Office

Historia de la Oficina Parroquial de Cristo Rey

When Christ the King Catholic Church established its parish school in 1964, a convent was built alongside the classrooms to house the sisters who would teach there. Fr. John Cullinan invited four Irish members of the Sisters of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (PBVM) to staff the new school. Completed that same year, the convent allowed the sisters to live on campus and fully dedicate themselves to the life of the parish and school.

At the time, it was common for Catholic schools to have religious sisters living on-site. They not only taught during the day but also prayed together as a community, supported parish life, and helped provide religious education. The sisters began by teaching grades 1 through 6 and played a central role in the school's early development. They taught academic subjects, served as principals and administrators, provided religious instruction and formation, and helped establish the Catholic identity and traditions that continue today. The Presentation Sisters faithfully served the school until 1988, when lay teachers gradually assumed these roles.

After the sisters departed, the convent took on a new purpose. The building was transformed into the parish center and administrative offices, housing ministries such as religious education, music, youth ministry, communications, maintenance, and counseling services.

Originally intended as a simple residence, the building gradually became the central hub of parish activity. For more than six decades, it has served the community well. Now, after 62 years, the time has come to reimagine this space to meet the growing needs of our parish. This will require replacing the current structure with a new, larger facility designed for the future.

We are not undertaking this project merely to build a new office, but to strengthen our diverse and vibrant community and to support our shared mission. The new parish office will serve as the heart of our ministry, operating with the vitality and care of a healthy human heart, allowing us to serve one another and Christ more effectively.

This new space will provide a safe, welcoming, and efficient environment where parishioners can meet with staff, receive pastoral care, plan ministries, and find support. It will be modern, accessible, and fully ADA-compliant, ensuring that our parish continues to grow, thrive, and serve for generations to come.

God bless,
Fr. Rolyn Francisco

Cuando la Iglesia Católica Cristo Rey estableció su escuela parroquial en 1964, se construyó un convento junto a las aulas para albergar a las hermanas que enseñarían allí. El Padre John Cullinan invitó a cuatro miembros irlandesas de las Hermanas de la Presentación de la Santísima Virgen María (PBVM) para conformar el personal de la nueva escuela. Terminado ese mismo año, el convento permitió a las hermanas vivir dentro del recinto y dedicarse plenamente a la vida de la parroquia y de la escuela.

En aquel entonces, era común que las escuelas católicas tuvieran hermanas religiosas viviendo en las propias instalaciones. Ellas no solo enseñaban durante el día, sino que también rezaban juntas como comunidad, apoyaban la vida parroquial y ayudaban a impartir educación religiosa. Las hermanas comenzaron enseñando los grados del 1 al 6 y desempeñaron un papel central en el desarrollo inicial de la escuela. Impartían materias académicas, fungían como directoras y administradoras, proporcionaban instrucción y formación religiosa, y ayudaron a establecer la identidad y las tradiciones católicas que perduran hasta el día de hoy. Las Hermanas de la Presentación sirvieron fielmente a la escuela hasta 1988, momento en el que los maestros laicos asumieron gradualmente estas funciones.

Tras la partida de las hermanas, el convento adquirió un nuevo propósito. El edificio se transformó en el centro parroquial y las oficinas administrativas, albergando ministerios tales como educación religiosa, música, pastoral juvenil, comunicaciones, mantenimiento y servicios de consejería.

Concebido originalmente como una simple residencia, el edificio se convirtió gradualmente en el centro neurálgico de la actividad parroquial. Durante más de seis décadas, ha servido admirablemente a la comunidad. Ahora, después de 62 años, ha llegado el momento de reimaginar este espacio para satisfacer las crecientes necesidades de nuestra parroquia. Esto requerirá reemplazar la estructura actual por una nueva instalación, de mayor tamaño y diseñada pensando en el futuro.

No emprendemos este proyecto simplemente para construir una nueva oficina, sino para fortalecer nuestra comunidad, diversa y vibrante, y para apoyar nuestra misión compartida. La nueva oficina parroquial servirá como el corazón de nuestro ministerio, operando con la vitalidad y el cuidado propios de un corazón humano sano, lo que nos permitirá servirnos unos a otros —y servir a Cristo— de manera más eficaz.

Este nuevo espacio proporcionará un entorno seguro, acogedor y eficiente donde los feligreses podrán reunirse con el personal, recibir atención pastoral, planificar ministerios y encontrar apoyo. Será moderno, accesible y cumplirá plenamente con las normas de accesibilidad (ADA), garantizando que nuestra parroquia continúe creciendo, prosperando y sirviendo a las generaciones venideras.

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre Rolyn Francisco

Thank You

May God truly reward each of you for your kindnesses to us. The March 14 parish-wide celebration of our birthdays and anniversaries of our religious professions and ordination was truly an outstanding example of CTK hospitality. We pray for all of you each evening.

Gratefully,
Sister Ann, Sister Patricia & Fr. Larry

Gracias

Que Dios los recompense a todos por su bondad hacia nosotros. La celebración parroquial del 14 de marzo —con motivo de nuestros cumpleaños y de los aniversarios de nuestras profesiones religiosas y ordenación— fue verdaderamente un ejemplo extraordinario de la hospitalidad de CTK. Rezamos por todos ustedes cada noche.

Con gratitud,
Hermana Ann, Hermana Patricia y Padre Larry
