Easter Sunday
April 5, 2026

Fr. Rolyn Francisco
Pastor

Domingo de Pascua
5 de Abril de 2026

Jesus lives! This is the heart of our faith and the source of our deepest joy. The Resurrection is not simply an event we recall once a year; it is a living reality that transforms our lives each day. Because Christ is risen, hope triumphs over despair, light overcomes darkness, and life conquers death.

We are called not only to celebrate this truth, but also to joyfully proclaim and bear witness to our faith in the Risen Lord. “You are witnesses of these things” (Lk 24:48), Jesus tells His disciples, and each of us. This call is not reserved for a select few; it belongs to all who have encountered His love and mercy.

To experience the Resurrection and to proclaim it are inseparably connected, as reflected in today’s readings (Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23; Colossians 3:1-4; John 20:1-9). The joy of the Risen Lord fills our hearts and naturally overflows into our words and actions through kindness, compassion, forgiveness, and steadfast faith. When we share this joy, we become living signs of Christ’s presence in the world.

If we keep this joy to ourselves, we leave Easter only half celebrated. The fullness of Easter is found not only in receiving the Good News, but in sharing it with others, especially those who long for hope, peace, and renewal.

For a Christian, every day is an Easter day, lived joyfully in the close company of the Risen Lord. May we continue to walk with Him, trust in His promises, and radiate His love in all that we do.

HAPPY EASTER TO EVERYONE!

¡Jesús vive! Este es el corazón de nuestra fe y la fuente de nuestra alegría más profunda. La Resurrección no es simplemente un acontecimiento que recordamos una vez al año; es una realidad viva que transforma nuestras vidas cada día. Porque Cristo ha resucitado, la esperanza triunfa sobre la desesperación, la luz vence a la oscuridad y la vida conquista a la muerte.

Estamos llamados no solo a celebrar esta verdad, sino también a proclamar con gozo y a dar testimonio de nuestra fe en el Señor Resucitado. «Ustedes son testigos de estas cosas» (Lc 24:48), les dice Jesús a sus discípulos y a cada uno de nosotros. Este llamado no está reservado para unos pocos elegidos; pertenece a todos aquellos que se han encontrado con su amor y su misericordia.

Experimentar la Resurrección y proclamarla están inseparablemente unidos, tal como se refleja en las lecturas de hoy (Hch 10:34a, 37-43; Sal 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23; Col 3:1-4; Jn 20:1-9). La alegría del Señor Resucitado llena nuestros corazones y, de manera natural, se desborda en nuestras palabras y acciones a través de la bondad, la compasión, el perdón y una fe inquebrantable. Al compartir esta alegría, nos convertimos en signos vivos de la presencia de Cristo en el mundo.

Si nos guardamos esta alegría para nosotros mismos, dejamos la Pascua celebrada solo a medias. La plenitud de la Pascua no se encuentra únicamente en recibir la Buena Nueva, sino en compartirla con los demás, especialmente con aquellos que anhelan esperanza, paz y renovación.

Para un cristiano, cada día es un día de Pascua, vivido con alegría en la compañía cercana del Señor Resucitado. Que sigamos caminando con Él, confiando en sus promesas y irradiando su amor en todo lo que hacemos.
