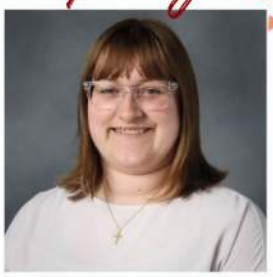
Meet the Teacher Spotlight



Meet Sofia Falter, who has been working in education for eight years, including four years at CTK! A graduate of Grand Canyon University, Sofia knew she loved teaching from an early age. As a child, she would play school by creating class rosters, worksheets, and lesson plans, even using encyclopedias to teach her imaginary students! Born in Panama, Sofia grew up in Watertown, New York; Tucson, Arizona; and Norman, Oklahoma. Her favorite subjects as a studen were science and religion, and today, her favorite part of teaching is watching her students grow in all aspects of their lives. She especially appreciates CTK's supportive, family-like atmosphere.

Outside the classroom, Sofia is a Catholic trivia enthusiast who enjoys classical musicm, musicals, country music, and Josh Groban. She is also a fan of the Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh Steelers, and her favorite movies include Dreamer and Top Gun. Her favorite travel destinations include Durango, Colorado; Texas; and San Diego, while Christmas and fall top her list of favorite times of year. At home, she has a dog named Tobit Luke and a white goldfish named Apollos. And her favorite school supply? Scraps of paper to help students practice their spelling!
